SERVICE DETAILS

Independent Disposition

For this option, Lyons Funeral Home provides basic preparations of the passed and places your loved one within their cremative casket. From here they shall be transported both to and later on, from the facilities before they are rested within their chosen urn and placed within the caring hands of their family.

Graveside Service

During a Graveside Service, Lyons Funeral Home provides basic preparations of the passed, and should cremation be chosen, places your loved one within their cremative casket. From here, they shall be transported both to and later on, from the cremative facilities before they are rested within their chosen urn, or casket. The service, held at the graveside, shall be overseen by our staff to ensure the utmost care and professionalism through a quiet, guiding presence. The family will have time to share stories, eulogies and encouragements for the attending audience.

Memorial Service

During a Memorial Service, Lyons Funeral Home provides preparations of the passed, and should cremation be chosen, places your loved one within their cremative casket. From here, they shall be transported both to and later on, from the cremative facilities before they are rested within their chosen urn, or casket. The service, held at our facilities or another designated location, will provide room for the family and their loved ones to find comfort in each other's words as they share stories, eulogies and encouragements. This service is most oftentimes attended by a clergy or other officiant who may share their presence, comfort, prayers and message with the family.

Unified Grave Service

During a Unified Grave Service, Lyons Funeral Home provides preparations of the passed, and should cremation be chosen, places your loved one within their cremative casket. From here, they shall be transported both to and later on, from the cremative facilities before they are rested within their chosen urn, or casket. The ceremony, held at our facilities or another designated location, will provide room for the family and their loved ones to find comfort in each other's words as they share stories, eulogies and encouragements. From this place, the family, the poll bearers and the deceased shall be transported to the grave, where a committal service will be held for final goodbyes. This service is most oftentimes attended by a clergy or other officiant who may share their presence, comfort, prayers and words with the family.

Legacy Funeral

During a Legacy Funeral, Lyons Funeral Home provides premium preparations of the passed, and should cremation be chosen, places your loved one within their cremative casket. From here, they shall be transported both to and later on, from the cremative facilities before they are rested within their chosen urn, or casket. During a Legacy Funeral, our facilities and staff are made available to assist the family in their visitation services, where those both local and from afar are able to come and share their time together before the final ceremony. The ceremony, held at our facilities or another designated location, will provide room for the family and their loved ones to find comfort in each other's words as they share stories, eulogies and encouragements. From this place, the family, the poll bearers and the deceased shall be transported to the grave, where a committal service will be held for final goodbyes. This service is most oftentimes attended by a clergy or other officiant who may share their presence, comfort, prayers and words with the family.
